

Paul V. Sherlock Center on Disabilities

Tell us what is important to you and your family....

January 9, 2012

The Sherlock Center on Disabilities is writing its next five (5) year plan. We invite you to attend a forum on January 9, 2012 to discuss this plan and to tell us what you think is important to Rhode Islanders.

The Sherlock Center welcomes individuals, family members of individuals with disabilities, and advocates to the forum. Your input will help us to develop our goals and activities for the next five years.

Please RSVP by January 6. Light refreshments provided.

When: Monday, January 9th 2012

Time: 1:00-3:00 pm

Location: Sherlock Center on Disabilities
Rhode Island College
600 Mt. Pleasant Avenue
Providence, RI 02908

Directions: Please see directions and campus map enclosed with this flyer.
Directions are also available on our website at www.sherlockcenter.org

RSVP: Elaine Sollecito
esollecito@ric.edu or call 401-456-2764

This event is an activity of the Sentinel Project, the consumer advisory committee at the Sherlock Center. Take this opportunity to engage with the Sentinel Project. Information will be available at the meeting.

† Gender Neutral Restrooms

Single occupancy restrooms located throughout campus, heretofore assigned by gender but in practice often used irrespective of gender, have been designated as gender neutral. These converted units address concerns about gender imbalance and gender identity in the availability of restroom facilities. Each unit is ADA compliant and provides a private, family friendly facility for occasions when the gender of a parent differs from that of a child or for when a caregiver must tend to an individual in need of assistance.
